There was no correspondence.

Financial Report
The financial report was presented. Expenditure and income were reviewed, and the school remains in a stable financial position.

Principal's Report
This outlines the work of the school since the last meeting:

- Enrolment: 11 applications for enrolment have been received since October, with further applications expected.
- Curricular: Staff took part in a full-day closure for Child Protection training. Additional training in the new Primary Curriculum Framework is planned.
- Extra-Curricular: The school has taken part in football and cross-country events with strong performances. Swimming will resume in January. Fundamental Movement coaching and a GAA pilot programme are ongoing. Preparations are underway for the Christmas Show.
- Health and Safety: A fire drill is scheduled for this term. No incidents have been reported.
- Buildings and Grounds: A quote has been requested for new perimeter fencing. A €12,000 grant has been received to replace school furniture. The school is seeking pricing for floor upgrades to align with the new building.

Building Project
The project is progressing, with completion expected in early 2026. Some challenges remain regarding retrospective approval of additional works. The Board continues to liaise with all relevant parties to ensure a timely and satisfactory resolution.
